(Department of Economic Affairs)

New Delhi, the 21st February 1964

S.O. 664.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, the Central Government, after considering an application made by the Reserve Bank of India under sub-section (1) of that section, hereby makes an order of moratorium in respect of the Salem Sri Kannikaparameswari Bank Ltd., Salem for the period from the 23rd February 1964 to the 21st June 1964 (both days inclusive) and hereby stays the commencement or continuance of all actions and proceedings against that banking company during the period of moratorium, subject to the condition that such stay shall not in any manner prejudice the exercise by the Central Government of its powers under clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 35 of the said Act or the exercise by the Reserve Bank of India of its powers under section 38 of the said Act.

2. The Central Government hereby also directs that, during the period of moratorium granted to it, the Salem Sri Kannikaparameswari Bank Ltd., Salem shall not, without the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India, grant any loan or advance, incur any liability, make any investment or agree to or disburse any payment, whether in discharge of its liabilities and obligations or otherwise, or enter into any compromise or arrangement, except to the extent and in the manner provided hereunder:—

- (i) a sum not exceeding 10 per cent of the total balance in every savings bank or current account or in any other deposit by whatever name called, provided that the sum total of the amounts paid in respect of the accounts standing in the name of any one person (and not jointly with that of any other person) does not exceed Rs. 250/-, and provided further that no amount shall be paid to any depositor who is indebted to the bank in any way;
- (ii) the amounts of any drafts or pay orders issued by the said bank and remaining unpaid on the date on which the order of moratorium comes into force;
- (iii) the amounts of the bills received for collection on or before the 22nd February 1964 and realised before, on or after that date;
- (iv) any expenditure which has necessarily to be incurred in connection with any suits or appeals filed by or against or decrees obtained by the said bank or for realising any amounts due to it, provided that if the expenditure in respect of any such suit or appeal or decree or proceeding is in excess of Rs. 250/-, the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India shall be obtained before it is incurred; and
- (v) any expenditure on any other item in so far as it is in the opinion of the banking company necessary for carrying on the day-to-day administration of the banking company, provided that where the total expenditure on any item in any calendar month exceeds the average monthly expenditure on account of that item during the six calendar months preceding the order of moratorium or if no expenditure has been incurred on account of that item in the past exceeds a sum of Rs. 250/-, the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India shall be obtained before the additional expenditure is incurred.

3. The Central Government hereby also directs that the Salem Sri Kannikaparameswari Bank Ltd., Salem may during the period of the moratorium granted to it, make the following further payments, namely, the amounts necessary for repaying loans or advances granted against Government securities or other securities to the Salem Sri Kannikaparameswari Bank Ltd., Salem by the Reserve Bank of India or the State Bank of India or any of its subsidiaries or by any other bank and remaining unpaid on the date on which the order of moratorium comes into force.

4. The Central Government hereby further directs that during the period of moratorium, the Salem Sri Kannikaparameswari Bank Ltd., Salem shall be permitted to operate its accounts with the Reserve Bank of India or with any other bank for the purposes of making the payments aforesaid provided that nothing in this order shall be deemed to require the Reserve Bank of India or any other bank aforesaid to satisfy itself that the conditions imposed by this order are being observed before any amounts are released in favour of the Salem Sri Kannika-parameswari Bank Ltd., Salem.

5. The Central Government hereby further directs that the Salem Sri Kannika-parameswari Bank Ltd., Salem may during the period of moratorium return any bills which have remained unrealised to the persons entitled to receive them on a request being made in this behalf by such persons, if the bank has no right or title to, or interest in, such bills.

6. The Central Government hereby also directs that the Salem Sri Kannika-parameswari Bank Ltd., Salem may release or deliver goods or securities which may be pledged, hypothecated or mortgaged or otherwise charged to it against any loan, cash credit or overdraft:

- (i) in any case in which full payment towards all the amounts due from the borrower or borrowers, as the case may be, has been received by the bank unconditionally; and
- (ii) in any other case, to such an extent as may be necessary or possible, without reducing the proportions of the margins on the said goods or securities below the stipulated proportions or the proportions which were maintained before the order of moratorium came into force whichever may be higher.

[No. F. 17(6)-BC/64.]

S.O. 665.—In exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (2) of section 45 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949, the Central Government, after considering an application made by the Reserve Bank of India under sub-section (1) of that section, hereby makes an order of moratorium in respect of the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam for the period from the 23rd February 1964 to the 22nd June 1964 (both days inclusive) and hereby stays the commencement or continuance of all actions and proceedings against that banking company during the period of moratorium, subject to the condition that such stay shall not in any manner prejudice the exercise by the Central Government of its powers under clause (b) of sub-section (4) of section 35 of the said Act or the exercise by the Reserve Bank of India of its powers under section 38 of the said Act.

2. The Central Government hereby also directs that, during the period of moratorium granted to it, the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam, shall not, without the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India, grant any loan or advance, incur any liability, make any investment or agree to or disburse any payment, whether in discharge of its liabilities and obligations or otherwise, or enter into any compromise or arrangement, except to the extent and in the manner provided hereunder:

- (i) a sum not exceeding 10% of the total balance in every savings bank or current account or in any other deposit by whatever name called, provided that the sum total of the amounts paid in respect of the accounts standing in the name of any one person (and not jointly with that of any other person) does not exceed Rs. 250/-, and provided further that no amount shall be paid to any depositor who is indebted to the bank in any way;
- (ii) the amounts of any drafts or pay orders issued by the said bank and remaining unpaid on the date on which the order of moratorium comes into force;
- (iii) the amounts of the bills received for collection on or before the 22nd February 1964 and realised before, on or after that date;
- (iv) any expenditure which has necessarily to be incurred in connection with any suits or appeals filed by or against or decrees obtained by the said bank or for realising any amounts due to it, provided that if the expenditure in respect of any such suit or appeal or decree or proceeding is in excess of Rs. 250/-, the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India shall be obtained before it is incurred; and
- (v) any expenditure on any other item in so far as it is in the opinion of the banking company necessary for carrying on the day-to-day administration of the banking company, provided that where the total expenditure on any item in any calendar month exceeds the average monthly expenditure on account of that item during the six calendar

months preceding the order of moratorium or if no expenditure has been incurred on account of that item in the past exceeds a sum of Rs. 250/-, the permission in writing of the Reserve Bank of India shall be obtained before the additional expenditure is incurred.

3. The Central Government hereby also directs that the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam, may during the period of the moratorium granted to it, make the following further payments, namely, the amounts necessary for repaying loans or advances granted against Government securities or other securities to the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam by the Reserve Bank of India or the State Bank of India or any of its subsidiaries or by any other bank and remaining unpaid on the date on which the order of moratorium comes into force.

4. The Central Government further directs that during the period of moratorium, the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam shall be permitted to operate its accounts with the Reserve Bank of India or with any other bank for the purposes of making the payments aforesaid provided that nothing in this order shall be deemed to require the Reserve Bank of India or any other bank aforesaid to satisfy itself that the conditions imposed by this order are being observed before any amounts are released in favour of the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam.

5. The Central Government hereby further directs that the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam may during the period of moratorium return any bills which have remained unrealised to the persons entitled to receive them on a request being made in this behalf by such persons, if the bank has no right or title to or interest in, such bills.

6. The Central Government hereby also directs that the Latin Christian Bank Ltd., Ernakulam may release or deliver goods or securities which may be pledged, hypothecated or mortgaged or otherwise charged to it against any loan, cash credit or overdraft :

- (i) in any case in which full payment towards all the amounts due from the borrower or borrowers, as the case may be, has been received by the bank unconditionally; and

MINISTRY OF FOOD & AGRICULTURE

(Department of Agriculture)

(Indian Council of Agricultural Research)

New Delhi, the 19th February 1964

S.O. 692.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15 of the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (14 of 1923), the Central Government hereby makes the following rules, namely:—

PART I

General

1. Short title.—These rules may be called the Indian Central Cotton Committee Employees (Classification, Control and Appeal) Rules, 1964.

2. Interpretation.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires:—

(a) "Appointing Authority" in relation to an employee means—

(i) the authority empowered to make appointments to the post which the employee for the time being holds, or

(ii) the authority which appointed the employee to such grade or post, as the case may be; whichever authority is the highest authority.

(b) "Committee" means the Indian Central Cotton Committee constituted under the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (14 of 1923);

(c) "Disciplinary Authority", in relation to the imposition of a penalty on an employee, means the authority competent under these rules to impose on him that penalty;

(d) "Employee" means an employee of the Indian Central Cotton Committee and includes the employees of the Committee who are transferred on foreign service to the Central or State Government, or to any public or private body and also any person in the service of a State or Central Government or a local or other authority whose services are temporarily placed at the disposal of the Committee;

(e) "Government" means the Central Government;

(f) "Schedule" means the Schedule to these rules;

(g) "Secretary" means the Secretary to the Indian Central Cotton Committee.

3. Application.—(1) These rules apply to all employees.

(2) If any doubt arises whether these rules or any of them apply to any person, the matter shall be referred to the Government, whose decision thereon shall be final.

4. Special provision by agreement.—Where it is considered necessary to make special provision in respect of an employee inconsistent with any of these rules, the authority making the appointment may, by agreement with such employee, make such special provisions and thereupon these rules shall not apply to such employee to the extent to which the special provisions so made are inconsistent therewith:

Provided that if the appointing authority is other than the Government, the previous approval of the Government shall be obtained by such authority.

5. Protection of rights and privileges conferred by any law or agreement.—Nothing in these rules shall operate to deprive any employee of any right or privilege to which he is entitled—

(a) by or under any law for the time being in force, or

(b) by the terms of any agreement subsisting between such person and the Government or the Committee at the commencement of these rules.

PART II

Classification

6. Classification.—(1) The posts under the Committee shall be classified as under:—

Sl. No.	Description of posts	Classification of posts.
1.	A post carrying a pay of a scale of pay with a Class I maximum of not less than Rs. 950.00.
2.	A post carrying a pay or a scale of pay with a Class II maximum of not less than Rs. 575.00 but less than Rs. 950.00.
3.	A post carrying a pay or a scale of pay with a Class III maximum of over Rs. 110.00 but less than Rs. 575.00.
4.	A post carrying a pay or a scale of pay the Class IV maximum of which is Rs. 110.00 or less.

(2) If there are posts of more than one grade, different grades may be included in different classes.

PART III

Appointing Authorities

7. Appointments to the different posts.—All appointments to posts under the Committee shall be made in accordance with the provisions of rule 9 of the Indian Cotton Cess Rules, 1923.

PART IV

Suspension

8. Suspension.—(1) The appointing Authority or any authority to which it is subordinate or any other authority empowered by the Government or the Committee as the case may be in that behalf, may place an employee under suspension—

- where a disciplinary proceeding against him is contemplated or is pending, or
- where a case against him in respect of any criminal offence is under investigation or trial.

Provided that where the order of suspension is made by an authority lower than the Appointing Authority, such authority shall forthwith report to the Appointing Authority the circumstances in which the order was made.

(2) An employee who is detained in custody, whether on a criminal charge or otherwise, for a period exceeding forty-eight hours shall be deemed to have been suspended with effect from the date of detention, by an order of the Appointing Authority and shall remain under suspension until further orders.

(3) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from any post under the Committee imposed upon an employee under suspension is set aside in appeal or on review under these rules and the case is remitted for further inquiry or action or with any other directions, the order of suspension shall be deemed to have continued in force on and from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall remain in force until further orders.

(4) Where a penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement from any post under the Committee imposed upon an employee is set aside or declared or rendered void in consequence or by a decision of a court of law and the disciplinary authority on a consideration of the circumstances of the case, decides to hold a further inquiry against him on the allegations on which the penalty of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement was originally imposed, the employee shall be deemed to have been placed under suspension by the Appointing Authority from the date of the original order of dismissal, removal or compulsory retirement and shall continue to remain under suspension until further orders.

(5) An order of suspension made or deemed to have been made under this rule may at any time be revoked by the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order or by any authority to which that authority is subordinate.

PART V

Discipline.

9. Nature of Penalties.—The following penalties may, for good and sufficient reasons and as hereinafter provided, be imposed on an employee, namely:—

- (i) censure;
- (ii) withholding of increments or promotion;
- (iii) recovery from pay of the whole or part of any pecuniary loss caused to the Committee by negligence or breach of orders;
- (iv) reduction to a lower grade or post, or to a lower time-scale, or to a lower stage in a time-scale;
- (v) compulsory retirement;
- (vi) removal from Committee service which shall not be a disqualification for further employment;
- (vii) dismissal from any post under the Committee which shall ordinarily be a disqualification for future employment.

Explanation.—The following shall not amount to a penalty within the meaning of this rule:—

- (i) withholding of increments of an employee for failure to pass a departmental examination in accordance with the rules or orders governing the post or the terms of his appointment;
- (ii) stoppage of an employee at the efficiency bar in the time-scale on the ground of his unfitness to cross the bar;
- (iii) non-promotion whether in a substantive or officiating capacity of an employee, after consideration of his case, to a grade or post for promotion to which he is eligible;
- (iv) reversion to a lower grade or post of an employee officiating in a higher grade or post on the ground that he is considered, after trial, to be unsuitable for such higher grade or post or on administrative grounds unconnected with his conduct;
- (v) reversion to his permanent grade or post of an employee appointed on probation to another grade or post during or at the end of the period of probation in accordance with the terms of his appointment or the rules and orders governing probation;
- (vi) replacement of the services of an employee whose services have been borrowed from the Central or a State Government or an authority under the control of the Central or State Government at the disposal of the authority which had lent his services;
- (vii) compulsory retirement of an employee in accordance with the provisions relating to his superannuation or retirement;
- (viii) termination of the services—
 - (a) of an employee appointed on probation, during or at the end of the period of probation, in accordance with the terms of his appointment or the rules and orders governing probation, or
 - (b) of a temporary employee in accordance with the terms of his appointment or relevant rules applicable to him, or
 - (c) of an employee employed under an agreement, in accordance with the terms of such agreement.

10. Disciplinary Authorities.—(1) The Government may impose any of the penalties specified in rule 9, on any employee.

(2) Without prejudice to the provisions of sub-rule (1), but subject to the provision of sub-rule (3), any of the penalties specified in rule 9 may be imposed on an employee by the authority specified in this behalf by a general or special order of the Government or where no such order has been made, by the Appointing Authority or the authority specified in the Schedule in this behalf.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this rule, no penalty specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 shall be imposed by any authority lower than the Appointing Authority.

11. Procedure for imposing major penalties.—(1) Without prejudice to the provisions of the Public Servants (Inquiry) Act, 1850, no order imposing on an employee any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 shall be passed except after an enquiry held as far as may be, in the manner hereinafter provided.

(2) The Disciplinary Authority shall frame definite charges on the basis of the allegations on which the enquiry is proposed to be held. Such charges, together with a statement of the allegations on which they are based, shall be communicated in writing to the employee and he shall be required to submit, within such time as may be specified by the Disciplinary Authority (a) to such Authority, or (b) where a Board of Inquiry or Inquiring Officer has been appointed under sub-rule (2a), to that Board or Officer, a written statement of his defence and also to state whether he desires to be heard in person.

Explanation.—In this sub-rule and in sub-rule (3), the expression “the Disciplinary Authority” shall include the authority competent under these rules to impose upon the employee any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 9.

(2a) The Disciplinary authority may enquire into the charges itself or, if it considers it necessary so to do, it may, either at the time of communicating the charges to an employee under sub-rule (2) or at any time thereafter, appoint a Board of Inquiry or an Inquiring Officer for the purpose.

(3) The employee shall, for the purpose of preparing his defence, be permitted to inspect and take extracts from such official records as he may specify, provided that such permission may be refused if, for reasons to be recorded in writing, in the opinion of the Disciplinary Authority such records are not relevant for the purpose or it is against the public interest to allow him access thereto.

(4) On receipt of the written statement of defence, or if no such statement is received within the time specified, the Disciplinary Authority, or as the case may be, the Board of Inquiry or the Inquiring Officer may inquire into such of the charges as are not admitted.

(5) The Disciplinary Authority may nominate any person to present the case in support of the charges before the authority inquiring into the charges (hereinafter referred to as the Inquiring Authority). The employee may present his case with the assistance of any other employee approved by the Disciplinary Authority, but may not engage a legal practitioner for the purpose unless the person nominated by the Disciplinary Authority as aforesaid is a legal practitioner or unless the Disciplinary Authority, having regard to the circumstances of the case, so permits.

(6) The Inquiring Authority shall, in the course of the inquiry, consider such documentary evidence and take such oral evidence as may be relevant or material in regard to the charges. The employee shall be entitled to cross-examine witnesses examined in support of the charges and to give evidence in person. The person presenting the case in support of the charges shall be entitled to cross-examine the employee and the witnesses examined in his defence. If the Inquiring Authority declines to examine any witness on the ground that his evidence is not relevant or material, it shall record its reasons in writing.

(7) At the conclusion of the inquiry, the Inquiring Authority shall prepare a report of the inquiry, recording its findings on each of the charges together with reasons therefor. If in the opinion of such authority the proceedings of the inquiry establish charges different from those originally framed it may record findings on such charges provided that findings on such charges shall not be recorded unless the employee has admitted the facts constituting them or has had an opportunity of defending himself against them.

(8) The record of the inquiry shall include.—

- (i) the charges framed against the employee and the statement of allegations furnished to him under sub-rule (2);
- (ii) his written statement of defence, if any;
- (iii) the oral evidence taken in the course of the inquiry;

- (iv) the documentary evidence considered in the course of the inquiry;
- (v) the orders, if any, made by the Disciplinary Authority and the Inquiring Authority in regard to the inquiry; and
- (vi) a report setting out the findings on each charges and the reasons therefor.

(9) The Disciplinary Authority shall, if it is not the Inquiring Authority, consider the record of the inquiry and record its findings on each charge.

(10) (i) If the Disciplinary Authority, having regard to its findings on the charges, is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 should be imposed, it shall—

- (a) furnish to the employee a copy of the report of the Inquiring Authority and, where the Disciplinary Authority is not the Inquiring Authority, a statement of its findings together with brief reasons for disagreement, if any, with the findings of the Inquiring Authority; and
- (b) give him a notice stating the action proposed to be taken in regard to him and calling upon him to submit within a specified time such representation as he may wish to make against the proposed action.

(ii) The Disciplinary Authority shall consider the representation, if any, made by the employee in response to the notice under clause (i) and determine what penalty, if any, should be imposed on the employee and pass appropriate orders on the case.

(11) If the Disciplinary Authority having regard to its findings is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 9 should be imposed, it shall pass appropriate orders in the case.

(12) Orders passed by the Disciplinary Authority shall be communicated to the employee who shall also be supplied with a copy of the report of the Inquiring Authority and, where the Disciplinary Authority is not the Inquiring Authority, a statement of its findings together with brief reasons for disagreement, if any, with the findings of the Inquiring Authority, unless they have already been supplied to him.

12. Procedure for imposing minor penalties.—(1) No order imposing any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 9 shall be passed except after—

- (a) the employee is informed in writing of the proposal to take action against him and of the allegations on which it is proposed to be taken and given an opportunity to make any representation he may wish to make; and
 - (b) such representation, if any, is taken into consideration by the Disciplinary Authority.
- (2) The record of proceedings in such cases shall include—
- (i) a copy of the intimation to the employee of the proposal to take action against him;
 - (ii) a copy of the statement of allegations communicated to him;
 - (iii) his representation, if any; and
 - (iv) the orders on the case together with the reasons therefor.

13. Joint Inquiry.—(1) Where two or more employees are concerned in any case, the Government or the Committee, in respect of Class III and Class IV, or any other authority competent to impose the penalty of dismissal from services on all such employees, may make an order directing that disciplinary action against all of them may be taken in a common proceeding.

(2) Subject to the provisions of sub-rule (3) of rule 10, any such order shall specify—

- (i) the authority which may function as the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of such common proceeding;
- (ii) the penalties specified in rule 9 which such Disciplinary Authority shall be competent to impose; and
- (iii) whether the procedure prescribed in rule 11 or rule 12 may be followed in the proceeding.

14. Special procedure in certain cases.—Notwithstanding anything contained in rule 11, 12 and 13—

- (i) where a penalty is imposed on an employee on the ground of conduct which has led to his conviction on a criminal charge; or
- (ii) where the Disciplinary Authority is satisfied for reasons to be recorded in writing that it is not reasonably practicable to follow the procedure prescribed in the said rule; or
- (iii) where the Government is satisfied that in the interest of the security of the State, it is not expedient to follow such procedure, the Disciplinary Authority may consider the circumstances of the case and pass such orders thereon as it deems fit.

15. Provisions regarding officers lent to Central or State Governments etc.—

(1) Where the services of an employee are lent to the Central or a State Government or an authority subordinate thereto or to a local or other authority (hereinafter in this rule referred to as "the borrowing authority"), the borrowing authority shall have the powers of the Appointing Authority for the purpose of placing him under suspension and of the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of taking a disciplinary proceeding against him:

Provided that the borrowing authority shall forthwith inform the authority which lent his services (hereinafter in this rule referred to as "the lending authority") of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension or the commencement of the disciplinary proceedings, as the case may be.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding taken against the employee—

- (i) if the borrowing authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 9 should be imposed on him, it may, in consultation with the lending authority pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary:

Provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the borrowing authority and the lending authority, the services of the employee shall be replaced at the disposal of the lending authority.

- (ii) if the borrowing authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 should be imposed on him, it shall replace his services at the disposal of the lending authority and transmit to it the proceedings of the inquiry and thereupon the lending authority may, if it is the Disciplinary Authority, pass such orders, thereon as it deems necessary, or, if it is not the Disciplinary Authority, submit the case to the Disciplinary Authority which shall pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary:

Provided that in passing any such order the Disciplinary Authority shall comply with the provisions of sub-rules (10) and (11) of rule 11.

Explanation.—The Disciplinary Authority may make an order under this clause on the record of the inquiry transmitted by the borrowing authority, or after holding such further inquiry as it may deem necessary.

16. Provisions regarding officers borrowed from Government and private bodies.—(1) Where an order of suspension is made or a disciplinary proceeding is taken against an employee whose services have been borrowed from the Central or a State Government or an authority subordinate thereto or a local or other authority, the authority lending his services (hereinafter in this rule referred to as the "lending authority") shall forthwith be informed of the circumstances leading to the order of his suspension or the commencement of the disciplinary proceeding as the case may be.

(2) In the light of the findings in the disciplinary proceeding taken against the employee—

- (i) if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (i) to (iii) of rule 9 should be imposed on him, it may, subject to the provisions of sub-rule (11) of rule 11 and after consultation with the lending authority, pass such orders on the case as it deems necessary:

Provided that in the event of a difference of opinion between the borrowing authority and the lending authority the services of the employee shall be replaced at the disposal of the lending authority;

- (ii) if the Disciplinary Authority is of the opinion that any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 should be imposed on him it shall replace his services at the disposal of the lending authority and transmit to it the proceedings of the inquiry for such action as it deems necessary.

PART VI

Appeals

17. Orders made by the Government not appealable.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this part, no appeal shall lie against any order made by the Government.

18. Appeals against orders of suspension.—An employee may appeal against an order of suspension to the authority to which the authority which made or is deemed to have made the order is immediately subordinate.

19. Appeals against orders imposing penalties.—(1) Employees in Class III and Class IV posts may appeal against an order imposing upon him any of the penalties specified in rule 9 to the authority specified in this behalf either in the schedule or by a general or special order of the Government or where no such authority is specified, to the authority to which the authority imposing the penalty is immediately subordinate.

(2) An employee in a Class II post may appeal—

- (a) to the Appointing Authority against an order made by an authority subordinate to it;
- (b) to the Government against an order made by any other authority; imposing upon him any of the penalties specified in rule 9.

(3) An employee in a Class I post against whom an order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 9 is made by an authority other than the Government may appeal against such order to the Government.

(4) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rules (1) to (3) an appeal against an order in a common proceeding held under rule 13 shall lie to the authority to which the authority functioning as the Disciplinary Authority for the purpose of that proceeding is immediately subordinate.

Explanation—In this rule the expression “employee” includes a person who has ceased to be in any post under the Committee.

20. Appeal against other orders.—(1) An employee may appeal against an order which—

- (a) denies or varies to his disadvantage, his pay, allowances, pension or other conditions of service as regulated by any rules or by agreement, or
 - (b) interprets to his disadvantage the provisions of any such rules or agreement,
- to the Government if the order is passed by the authority which made the rules or agreement, as the case may be, or by any authority to which such authority is subordinate, and to the authority which made such rules or agreement if the order is passed by any other authority.

(2) An appeal against an order—

- (a) stopping an employee at the efficiency bar in the time-scale on the ground of his unfitness to cross the bar;
- (b) reverting to a lower grade or post, an employee officiating in a higher grade or post, otherwise than as a penalty;

- (c) reducing or withholding Committee's contribution to the Provident Fund or denying the maximum Provident Fund admissible under the rules; and
- (d) determining the pay and allowances for the period of suspension to be paid to an employee on his reinstatement or determining whether or not such period shall be treated as a period spent on duty for any purpose; shall lie—

- (i) in the case of an order made in respect of an employee on whom the penalty of dismissal from service can be imposed only by the Government, to the Government; and
- (ii) in the case of an order made in respect of any other employee to the authority to whom an appeal against an order imposing upon him the penalty of dismissal from any post under the Committee would lie.

Explanation.—In this rule—

- (i) the expression "employee" includes a person who has ceased to be in any post under the Committee;
- (ii) the expression 'Provident Fund' includes any other retirement benefit.

21. Period of limitation for appeals.—No appeal under this Part shall be entertained unless it is submitted within a period of three months from the date on which the appellant receives a copy of the order appealed against:

Provided that the appellate authority may entertain the appeal after the expiry of the said period, if it is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not submitting the appeal in time.

22. Form and contents of appeal.—(1) Every person submitting an appeal shall do so separately and in his own name.

(2) The appeal shall be addressed to the authority to whom the appeal lies, shall contain all material statements and arguments on which the appellant relies, shall not contain any disrespectful or improper language, and shall be complete in itself.

23. Submission of appeals.—Every appeal shall be submitted to the authority which made the order appealed against:

Provided that if such authority is not the head of the office in which the appellant may be serving or, if he is not in service, the head of the office in which he was last serving, or is not subordinate to the head of such office, the appeal shall be submitted to the head of such office, who shall forward it forthwith to the said authority:

Provided further that a copy of the appeal may be submitted direct to the appellate authority.

24. Withholding of appeals.—(1) The authority which made the order appealed against may withhold the appeal if—

- (i) it is an appeal against an order from which no appeal lies; or
- (ii) it does not comply with any of the provisions of rule 22; or
- (iii) it is not submitted within the period specified in rule 21 and no cause is shown for the delay; or
- (iv) it is a repetition of an appeal already decided and no new facts or circumstances are adduced:

Provided that an appeal withheld on the ground only that it does not comply with the provisions of rule 22 shall be returned to the appellant and, if resubmitted within one month thereof after compliance with the said provisions, shall not be withheld.

(2) Where an appeal is withheld, the appellant shall be informed of the fact and the reasons therefor.

(3) At the commencement of each quarter, a list of the appeals withheld by any authority during the previous quarter, together with the reasons for withholding them shall be furnished by that authority to the appellate authority.

25. Transmission of appeals.—(1) The authority which made the order appealed against shall, without any avoidable delay, transmit to the appellate authority every appeal which is not withheld under rule 24, together with its comments thereon and the relevant records.

(2) The authority to which the appeal lies may direct transmission to it of any appeal withheld under rule 24 and thereupon such appeal shall be transmitted to that authority together with the comments of the authority withholding the appeal and the relevant records.

26. Consideration of appeals.—(1) In the case of an appeal against an order of suspension, the appellate authority shall consider whether in the light of the provisions of rule 8 and having regard to the circumstances of the case the order of suspension is justified or not and confirm or revoke the order accordingly.

(2) In the case of an appeal against an order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 9, the appellate authority shall consider—

- (a) whether the procedure prescribed in these rules has been complied with and, if not whether such non-compliance has resulted in violation of any provisions of the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 or in failure of justice;
- (b) whether the findings are justified; and
- (c) whether the penalty imposed is excessive, adequate or inadequate; and, pass orders—

- (i) setting aside, reducing, confirming or enhancing the penalty; or
- (ii) remitting the case to the authority which imposed the penalty or to any other authority with such direction as it may deem fit in the circumstances of the case:

Provided that—

- (i) the appellate authority shall not impose any enhanced penalty which neither such authority nor the authority which made the order appealed against is competent in the case to impose;
- (ii) no order imposing an enhanced penalty shall be passed unless the appellant is given an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such enhanced penalty; and
- (iii) if the enhanced penalty which the appellate authority proposes to impose is one of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vii) of rule 9 and an inquiry under rule 11 has not already been held in the case, the appellate authority shall, subject to the provisions of rule 14, itself hold such inquiry or direct that such inquiry be held and thereafter on consideration of the proceedings of such inquiry and after giving the appellant an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such penalty, pass such orders as it may deem fit.

(3) In the case of an appeal against any order specified in rule 20, the appellate authority shall consider all the circumstances of the case and pass such orders as it deems just and equitable.

27. Implementation of orders in appeal.—The authority which made the order appealed against shall give effect to the orders passed by the appellate authority.

27-A. Provision when Disciplinary Authority etc. subsequently becomes Appellate Authority.—Notwithstanding anything contained in this Part, where the person who made the order appealed against becomes by virtue of his subsequent appointment or otherwise, the appellate authority under rules 18 to 20 in respect of the appeal against such order, such person shall forward the appeal to the authority to which he is immediately subordinate and such authority shall, in relation to that appeal, be deemed to be appellate authority for the purposes of rules 26 and 27.

PART VII

Review

28. Government's power to review.—Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Government may, on its own motion or otherwise, after calling for the records of the case, review any order which is made or is appealable under these rules or the rules repealed by rule 30 and,

- (a) confirm, modify or set aside the order;
- (b) impose any penalty or set aside, reduce, confirm or enhance the penalty imposed by the order;
- (c) remit the case to the authority which made the order or to any other authority directing such further action or inquiry as it considers proper in the circumstances of the case; or
- (d) pass such other orders as it deems fit:

Provided that—

- (i) an order imposing or enhancing a penalty shall not be passed unless the person concerned has been given an opportunity of making any representation which he may wish to make against such enhanced penalty;
- (ii) If the Government proposes to impose any of the penalties specified in clauses (iv) to (vi) of rule 9 in a case where an inquiry under rule 11 has not been held, it shall, subject to the provisions of rule 14, direct that such inquiry be held and thereafter on consideration of the proceedings of such inquiry and after giving the person concerned an opportunity of making and representation which he may wish to make against such penalty, pass such orders as it may deem fit.

29. Review of orders in disciplinary cases.—The authority to which an appeal against an order imposing any of the penalties specified in rule 9 lies may, of its own motion or otherwise, call for the records of the case in a disciplinary proceeding, review any order passed in such a case and, pass such orders as it deems fit, as if the employee had preferred an appeal against such order:

Provided that no action under this rule shall be initiated more than six months after the date of the order to be reviewed.

PART VIII

Miscellaneous

30. Repeal and Savings.—(1) Previous rules and any notifications issued and orders made under any such rules to the extent to which they apply to persons to whom these rules apply and in so far as they relate to Classification, Control and Appeal or confer powers to impose penalties or entertain appeals are hereby repealed:

Provided that—

- (a) such repeal shall not affect the previous operation of the said rules, notifications and orders or anything done or any action taken thereunder;
- (b) any proceedings under the said rules, notifications or orders pending at the commencement of these rules shall be continued and disposed of as far as may be in accordance with the provisions of these rules.

(2) Nothing in these rules shall operate to deprive any person to whom these rules apply of any right of appeal which had accrued to him under the rules, notifications or orders repealed by sub-rule (1) in respect of any order passed before the commencement of these rules.

(3) An appeal pending at or preferred after the commencement of these rules against an order made before such commencement shall be considered and orders thereon shall be passed, in accordance with these rules.

31. Removal of doubts.—Where a doubt arises as to whether any authority is subordinate to or higher than any other authority or as to the interpretation of any of the provisions of these rules, the matter shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

S.O. 693.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 15 of the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (14 of 1923), the Central Government hereby makes the following Rules, namely:—

1. Short title.—(1) These rules may be called the Indian Central Cotton Committee Employees (Conduct) Rules, 1964.

2. Definitions.—In these rules, unless the context otherwise requires;

(a) "Committee" means the Indian Central Cotton Committee constituted under the Indian Cotton Cess Act, 1923 (14 of 1923);

(b) "Employee" means an employee of the Indian Central Cotton Committee and includes the employees of the Committee who are temporarily transferred on foreign service to the Central or State Governments or to any public or private body but shall not include employees of the State or Central Government who is on foreign service to the Committee;

(c) "The Government" means the Central Government;

(d) "Members of the family" in relation to an employee of the Committee includes—

(i) the wife, child or step-child of such employee whether residing with him or not, and in relation to an employee who is a woman, the husband residing with her and dependent on her; and

(ii) any other person related, whether by blood or by marriage to the employee or to such employee's wife or husband, and wholly dependent on such employee, but does not include a wife or husband legally separated from the employee, or child or step-child who is no longer in any way dependent upon him or her, or of whose custody the employee has been deprived by law.

3. General.—Every employee shall at all times maintain absolute integrity and devotion to duty.

4. Employment of near relatives of Employees in private firms enjoying Committee patronage.—No employee belonging to Class I shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, permit his son, daughter or dependent to accept employment with any private firm with which he has official dealings, or with any other firm having official dealings with the Committee:

Provided that where the acceptance of the employment cannot await the prior permission of the Committee, or is otherwise considered urgent, the matter shall be reported to the Committee and the employment may be accepted provisionally subject to the permission of the Committee.

5. Taking part in politics and elections.—(1) No employee shall be a member of, or be otherwise associated with, any political party or any organisation which takes part in politics nor shall he take part in, subscribe in aid of or assist in any other manner, any political movement or activity.

(2) It shall be the duty of every employee to endeavour to prevent any member of the family from taking part in, subscribing in aid of or assisting in any other manner any movement or activity which is, or tends directly or indirectly to be, subversive of the Government as by law established, and where an employee is unable to prevent a member of his family from taking part in, or subscribing in aid of or assisting in any other manner, any such movement or activity, he shall make a report to that effect to the Committee.

(3) If any question arises whether any movement or activity falls within the scope of this rule the decision of the Government thereon shall be final.

(4) No employee shall canvass or otherwise interfere or use his influence in connection with, or take part in, an election to any legislature or local authority;

Provided that—

(i) where an employee is qualified to vote at such election, he may exercise his right to vote, but where he does so, he shall give no indication of the manner in which he proposes to vote or has voted;

(ii) an employee shall not be deemed to have contracted the provisions of this rule by reason only that he assists in the conduct of an election in the due performance of a duty imposed on him by or under any law for the time being in force.

Explanation.—The display by an employee on his person, vehicle or residence of any electoral symbol shall amount to using his influence in connection with an election within the meaning of this sub-rule.

6. Demonstrations and Strikes.—No employee shall—

(i) engage himself or participate in any demonstration which is prejudicial to the interests of the sovereignty and integrity of India, the security of the State, friendly relations with foreign States, public order, decency or morality, or which involves contempt of court, defamation or incitement to an offence, or

(ii) resort to or in any way abet any form of strike in connection with any matter pertaining to his service or the service of any other employee.

7. Joining of Associations by Employees.—No employee shall join, or continue to be a member of, an association the objects or activities of which are prejudicial to the interests of the sovereignty and integrity of India or public order or morality.

8. Connection with press or radio.—(1) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, own wholly or in part, or conduct, or participate in the editing or managing of any newspaper or other periodical publication.

(2) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee or any other authority empowered by it in this behalf, or in the bona fide discharge of his duties, participate in a radio broadcast or contribute any article or write any letter either anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person to any newspaper or periodical.

Provided that no such sanction shall be required if such broadcast or such contribution is of a purely literary, artistic or scientific character.

9. Criticism of Government.—No employee shall, in any radio broadcast or in any document published anonymously or in his own name or in the name of any other person or in any communication to the press or in any public utterance, make any statement of fact or opinion—

(i) which has the effect of an adverse criticism of any current or recent policy or action of, the Central Government or a State Government or the Committee; or

(ii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations, between the Central Government and the Government of any State or of the Committee with either of them; or

(iii) which is capable of embarrassing the relations between the Central Government and the Government of any foreign State:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall apply to any statements made or views expressed by an employee in his official capacity or in the due performance of the duties assigned to him.

10. Evidence before a Committee or any other authority.—(1) Save as provided in sub-rule (3), no employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, give evidence in connection with any inquiry conducted by any person, committee or authority.

(2) Where any sanction has been accorded under sub-rule (1), no employee giving such evidence shall criticize the policy or any action of the Central Government or of a State Government or of the Committee.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall apply to—

(a) evidence given at an inquiry before an authority appointed by the Government, by Parliament, or by a State Legislature or by the Committee; or

(b) evidence given in any judicial inquiry; or

(c) evidence given at any departmental inquiry ordered by authorities subordinate to the Committee.

11. Unauthorised communication of information.—No employee shall, except in accordance with any general or special order of the Government or of the Committee or in the performance in good faith of the duties assigned to him, communicate, directly or indirectly, any official document or information to any employee or any other person to whom he is not authorised to communicate such document or information.

12. Subscriptions.—No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, or of such authority as may be empowered by it in this behalf, ask for or accept contributions to, or otherwise associate himself with the raising of, any fund in pursuance of any object whatsoever.

13. Gifts.—(1) Save as otherwise provided in these rules, no employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, accept or permit his wife or any other member of his family to accept from any person any gift of more than trifling value:

Provided that gifts of a value, reasonable in all circumstances of the case, may be accepted from relations and personal friends or presented to such persons on occasions such as weddings, anniversaries, funerals and religious functions, when the making or receiving of such gift is in conformity with the prevailing religious or social customs; but acceptance of such gifts other than those of a trifling value shall be reported to the Committee and the gifts shall be disposed of in such manner as the Committee may direct.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this sub-rule, any trowel, key or other similar articles offered to an employee at the laying of the foundation stone or the opening of a public building or any ceremonial function shall be deemed to be a gift.

(2) If a question arises whether any gift is of a trifling value or not, or where an employee is in any doubt whether a gift offered to him is of a trifling value or not, a reference shall be made to the Committee by such employee and the decision of the Committee thereon shall be final.

Explanation.—Whether or not a gift should be treated as of trifling value shall depend on who the donor is and the circumstances in which the gift is made. A gift up to the value of one-twentieth of the monthly emoluments of an employee or rupees twenty, whichever is less, from a person who is not his relation or his personal friend, and up to the value of one-eighth of the monthly emoluments of the employee or rupees fifty whichever is less from his relatives and personal friends shall ordinarily be regarded as a gift of trifling value. On special occasions, such as those mentioned in the proviso to sub-rule (1), gifts up to the value of one half of the monthly emoluments of the employee or rupees two hundred, whichever is less, from his relatives and personal friends shall be regarded as of trifling value.

(3) Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prevent any employee from sitting, at the request of any public body for a portrait, bust or statue, not intended for presentation to him.

14. Public demonstrations in honour of an employee.—No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, receive any complimentary or valedictory address or accept any testimonial or attend any meeting or entertainment held in his honour, or in the honour of any other employee:

Provided that nothing in this rule shall apply to—

- (i) a farewell entertainment of a substantially private and informal character held in honour of any employee on the occasion of, the retirement or transfer or quitting of service, of himself or of any other employee; or
- (ii) the acceptance of simple and inexpensive entertainments arranged by public bodies or institutions.

15. Private trade or employment.—(1) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, engage directly or indirectly, in any trade or business or undertake any employment:

Provided that an employee may, without such sanction undertake honorary work of a social or charitable nature or occasional work of a literary, artistic or scientific character, subject to the condition that his official duties do not thereby suffer; but he shall not undertake, or shall discontinue, such work if so directed by the Committee.

Explanation.—Canvassing by an employee in support of the business of insurance agency, commission agency, etc. owned or managed by his wife or any other member of his family shall be deemed to be a breach of this sub-rule.

(2) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, take part in the registration, promotion or management of any bank or other company registered under the Companies Act, 1956 (1 of 1956), or any other law for the time being in force:

Provided that an employee may take part in the registration, promotion or management of a co-operative society registered under the Co-operative Societies Act, 1912 (2 of 1912), or any other law for the time being in force, or of a literary, scientific or charitable society registered under the Societies Registration Act, 1860 (21 of 1860), or any corresponding law in force.

16. Investments, lending and borrowing.—(1) No employee shall speculate in any investment.

Explanation.—The habitual purchase or sale of securities of a notoriously fluctuating value shall be deemed to be speculation in investments within the meaning of this sub-rule.

(2) No employee shall make, or permit his wife or any member of his family to make, any investment likely to embarrass or influence him in the discharge of his official duties.

(3) If any question arises whether a security or investment is of the nature referred to in sub-rule (1) or sub-rule (2), the decision of the Committee thereon shall be final.

(4) No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, lend money to any person possessing land or valuable property within the local limits of his authority, or at interest to any person:

Provided that an employee may make an advance of pay to a private servant, or give a loan of small amount free of interest to a personal friend or relative, even if such person possesses land within the local limits of his authority.

(5) No employee shall, save in the ordinary course of business with a bank or a firm of standing, borrow money from or otherwise place himself under pecuniary obligation to any person within the local limits of his authority, or any other person with whom he is likely to have official dealings, nor shall he permit any member of his family, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, to enter into any such transaction:

Provided that an employee may accept a purely temporary loan of small amount, free of interest, from a personal friend or relative or operate a credit account with a bona fide tradesman.

(6) When an employee is appointed or transferred to a post of such a nature as to involve him in the breach of any of the provisions of sub-rule (4) or sub-rule (5), he shall forthwith report the circumstances to the Committee and shall thereafter act in accordance with such orders as may be passed by the Committee.

17. Insolvency and habitual indebtedness.—An employee shall so manage his private affairs as to avoid habitual indebtedness or insolvency. An employee who becomes the subject of a legal proceeding for insolvency shall forthwith report the full facts to the Committee.

18. Movable, Immovable and valuable property.—(1) No employee shall, except with the previous knowledge of the prescribed authority, acquire or dispose of any immovable property by lease, mortgage, purchase, sale, gift or otherwise, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family:

Provided that any such transaction conducted otherwise than through a regular or reputed dealer shall require the previous sanction of the prescribed authority.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule, the prescribed authority shall be,—

(i) in the case of employees in Class I posts, whether on transfer to any foreign service or not, the Committee;

(ii) in the case of all other employees whether on transfer to any foreign service or not, the Secretary to the Committee”.

(2) An employee who enters into any transaction concerning any movable property exceeding one thousand rupees in value, whether by way of purchase, sale or otherwise, shall forthwith report such transaction to the prescribed authority, referred to in sub-rule (1):

Provided that no employee shall enter into any such transaction except with or through a regular or reputed dealer or agent or with the previous sanction of the said prescribed authority.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this sub-rule, the expression “Movable property” includes inter alia the following property, namely:—

(a) jewellery, insurance policies, shares, securities and debentures;

(b) loans advanced by such employee whether secured or not;

- (c) motor cars, motor cycles, horses or any other means of conveyance; and
- (d) refrigerators, radios and radiograms.

(3) Every employee in Class I or Class II post shall, on first appointment in the Committee and thereafter at intervals of every twelve months, submit a return in such form as the Committee may direct in this behalf, of all immovable property owned, acquired or inherited by him or held by him on lease or mortgage, either in his own name or in the name of any member of his family or in the name of any other person.

(4) The Committee or any authority empowered by it in this behalf may, at any time, by general or special order, require an employee to submit, within a period specified in the order a full and complete statement of such movable or immovable property owned, acquired or inherited by him or by any member of his family as may be specified in the order. Such statement shall, if so required by the Committee or by the authority so empowered, include details of the means by which, or the source from which, such property was acquired.

19. Vindication of acts and character of employees.—No employee shall, except with the previous sanction of the Committee, have recourse to any court or to the press for the vindication of any official act which has been the subject matter of adverse criticism or an attack of defamatory character.

Explanation.—Nothing in this rule shall be deemed to prohibit an employee from vindicating his private character or any action done by him in his private capacity.

20. Canvassing of non-official or other outside influence.—No employee shall bring or attempt to bring any political or other outside influence to bear upon any superior authority to further his interests in respect of matters pertaining to his service under the Committee.

21. Bigamous marriages.—No employee who has a spouse living shall contract another marriage without first obtaining the permission of the Committee, notwithstanding that such subsequent marriage is permissible under the personal law for the time being applicable to him or her.

22. Delegation of powers.—The Committee may, by general or special order, direct that any power exercisable by it under these rules shall, subject to such conditions, if any, as may be specified in the order, be exercisable also by such officer or authority as may be specified in the order.

23. Interpretation.—If any question arises relating to the interpretation of these rules, it shall be referred to the Central Government whose decision thereon shall be final.

With regard to the punishment to be imposed, no general orders can be issued. This will naturally have to be decided by the competent authority in each case with reference to the relevant facts and circumstances of the case.

24. Repeal and saving.—Any rules corresponding to these rules in force immediately before the commencement of these rules and applicable to the employees to whom these rules apply are hereby repealed:

Provided that any order made or action taken under the rules so repealed shall in so far as it is not inconsistent with these rules, be deemed to have been made or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules.

67. A. (1) *“Part VI—Sale of Homoeopathic Medicines.—*The State Government shall appoint licensing authorities for the purpose of this Part for such areas as may be specified.

(2) Applications for the grant or renewal of a licence to sell, stock or exhibit for sale or distribute homoeopathic medicines shall be made in Form 19-B, to the Licensing Authority and shall be accompanied by a fee of rupees five.

Provided that if the applicant applies for renewal of license after its expiry but within one month of such expiry the fee payable for renewal of such licence shall be rupees five plus an additional fee of rupees five.

67. B. A licensing authority may with the approval of the State Government by an order in writing delegate the power to sign licences and such other powers as may be specified to any other person under his control.

67. C. Forms of licences to sell drugs.—(1) A licence to sell stock or exhibit for sale or distribute homoeopathic medicines by retail or by wholesale shall be issued in Form 20-C, or 20-D, as the case may be.

67. D. *Sale at more than one place.—*If drugs are sold or stocked for sale at more than one place, separate application shall be made and a separate licence shall be obtained in respect of each place.

67. E. *Duration of licences.—*An original licence or a renewed licence unless it is sooner suspended or cancelled shall be valid upto the 31st December, of the year following the year in which it is granted or renewed.

Provided that if the application for renewal of a licence in force is made before its expiry or if the application is made and the additional fee paid within one month of its expiry, the licence shall continue to be in force until orders are passed on the application. The licence shall be deemed to have expired if application for its renewal is not made within one month after its expiry.

67. F. Conditions to be satisfied before a licence in Form 20-C is granted.—

(1) A licence in Form 20-C or Form 20-D to sell, stock or exhibit for sale or distribute homoeopathic medicines shall not be granted to any person unless the authority empowered to grant the licence is satisfied that the premises in respect of which the licence is to be granted are clean and in charge of a person competent in the opinion of the licensing authority to deal in homoeopathic medicines.

(2) Any person who is aggrieved by the order passed by the licensing authority under sub-rule (1) may within 30 days from the date of the receipt of such order appeal to the State Government and the State Government may, after such enquiry into the matter as it considers necessary and after giving the appellant an opportunity for representing his case make such order in relation thereto as it thinks fit.

67. G. *Conditions of Licence.—*Licence in Form 20-C or 20-D shall be subject to the condition stated therein and to the following further conditions, namely:—

(1) The premises where the homoeopathic medicines are stocked for sale or sold are maintained in a clean condition.

(2) The sale of homoeopathic medicines shall be conducted under the supervisions of a competent person.

- (3) The licensee shall permit an Inspector to inspect the premises and furnish such information as he may require for ascertaining whether the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder have been observed.

67. H. Cancellation and suspension of licences.—(1) The licensing authority may, after giving the licensee an opportunity to show cause why such an order should not be passed by an order in writing stating the reasons therefor, cancel a licence issued under this Part or suspend it for such period as he thinks fit, either wholly or in respect of some of the substances to which it relates, if, in his opinion, the licensee has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the licence or with any provisions of the Act or rules made thereunder:

Provided that if such failure or contravention is the consequence of an act or omission on the part of an agent or employee, the licence shall not be cancelled or suspended unless the licensing authority is satisfied

- (a) that the act or omission was instigated or connived at by the owner of the business or, if the owner is a firm or company, by a partner of the firm or a director of the company; or
- (b) that the owner of the business or an agent or employee of the owner had been guilty of a similar act or omission within twelve months before the date on which the act or omission in question took place and that the owner had, or reasonably ought to have had, knowledge of that previous act or omission; or
- (c) if the act or omission was a continuing act or omission, that the owner of the business had or reasonably ought to have had, knowledge of that previous act or omission; or
- (d) that the owner of the business had not used due diligence to ensure that the conditions of the licence or the provisions of the Act or the rules made thereunder were observed.

(2) A licensee whose licence has been suspended or cancelled may appeal to the State Government whose decision shall be final.

8. Before rule 63 of the said rules in the heading of Part VII after the words "Manufacture for sale" the words "of drugs other than Homoeopathic medicines" shall be inserted.

9. After Part VII and rule 83 of the said rules the following new Part and Rules shall be inserted, namely:—

"Part VII-A Manufacture for sale of Homoeopathic medicines.

85.A. Manufacture on more than one set of premises.—If Homoeopathic medicines are manufactured in more than one set of premises a separate application shall be made and a separate licence shall be obtained in respect of each such set of premises.

85.B. Application for licence to manufacture Homoeopathic medicines.—(1) Application for grant or renewal of licences to manufacture for sale of Homoeopathic medicines shall be made to the Licensing Authority appointed by the State Government for the purpose of this Part (hereinafter in this Part referred to as the Licensing Authority) and shall be made in Form 24-C and shall be accompanied by a fee of rupees forty.

(2) If a person applied for renewal of a licence after its expiry but within one month of such expiry, the fee payable for the renewal of such a licence shall be rupees forty plus an additional fee of rupees twenty.

- (iii) While applying for a licence to manufacture 'New Homoeopathic medicine' an applicant shall produce along with his application evidence that the 'New Homoeopathic Medicine' for the manufacture of which application is made has already been approved.

Explanation.—The term 'New Homoeopathic medicine' in this rule shall have the same meaning as in rule 30 AA.

85-D. Form of licence to manufacture Homoeopathic medicines.—Licences for manufacture of Homoeopathic medicines against applications in Form 24-C shall be granted in Form 25-C.

85-E. Conditions for the grant or renewal of a licence in Form 25-C.—Before a licence in Form 25-C is granted or renewed the following conditions shall be complied with by the applicant:—

- (1) The manufacture of Homoeopathic medicines shall be conducted under the direction and supervision of competent technical staff consisting at least of one person who is a whole time employee and who has at least five years experience in the manufacture of Homoeopathic medicines.
- (2) The factory premises shall be clean and located in hygienic surroundings.
- (3) The applicant shall either (i) provide and maintain adequate staff, premises and laboratory equipment for identifying the raw materials used in the medicines and for testing the active ingredients in mother tinctures wherever possible, or (ii) make arrangements with some institution approved by the Licensing Authority for such tests, wherever possible, to be regularly carried out on his behalf by that institution.
- (4) The premises where Homoeopathic medicines are manufactured shall be separate from premises where other drugs, if any, are manufactured.
- (5) The applicant shall make arrangement for proper storage of Homoeopathic medicines manufactured by him.

85. F. Duration of licence.—An original licence or a renewed licence unless it is sooner suspended or cancelled shall be valid upto the 31st December, of the year in which it is granted or renewed:

Provided that if application for the renewal of a licence in force is made before its expiry, or if the application is made and the additional fee paid within one month of its expiry, the licence shall continue to be in force until orders are passed on the application. The licence shall be deemed to have expired if application for its renewal, is not made within one month after its expiry.

85. G. Certificate of renewal.—The certificate of renewal of a licence in Form 25-C shall be issued in Form 26-C.

85. H. Conditions of licence.—A licence in Form 25-C shall be subject to the conditions stated therein and to the following further conditions, namely:—

- (a) the licensee shall provide and maintain staff and premises as specified in rule 58-E;
- (b) the licensee shall allow an Inspector authorised by the Licensing Authority in that behalf to enter, with or without prior notice, any premises where the manufacture of a Homoeopathic medicine in respect of which the licence is issued is carried on, to inspect the premises and to take samples of the manufactured Homoeopathic medicines;

- (c) the licensee shall allow an Inspector to inspect all registers and records maintained under these rules and shall supply to the Inspector such information as he may require for the purpose of ascertaining whether the provisions of the Act and the Rules made thereunder have been observed;
- (d) the licensee shall maintain an Inspection Book to enable an Inspector to record his impressions and defects noticed;
- (e) the licensee shall comply with the following conditions in respect of mother tinctures manufactured by him—
 - (i) the crude drug used in the manufacture of the mother tincture shall be identified and records of such identification shall be kept;
 - (ii) the active ingredients present in the mother tincture shall be tested, wherever possible, and records of such tests shall be kept;
 - (iii) the solid matter in the mother tincture shall be determined, wherever possible, and records of such tests shall be kept;
 - (iv) the alcohol content in the mother tincture shall be determined and records of the same shall be maintained;
 - (v) the containers of mother tinctures shall preferably be of glass and shall be clean and free from any sort of impurities or adhering matter. The glass shall be neutral as far as possible.
 - (vi) in the process of manufacture of mother tinctures hygienic conditions shall be scrupulously observed by the licensee. Storage and handling conditions shall also be properly observed by the licensee according to Homoeopathic principles.

85-I. Cancellation and suspension of licences.—(1) The Licensing Authority may, after giving the licensee an opportunity to show cause why such an order should not be passed, by an order in writing stating the reasons therefor cancel a licence issued under this Part or suspend it for such period as he thinks fit, either wholly or in respect of some of the substances to which it relates if, in his opinion, the licensee has failed to comply with any of the conditions of the licence or with any provisions of the Act or rules made thereunder.

(2) A licensee whose licence has been suspended or cancelled may appeal to the State Government whose decisions shall be final.

10. After rule 93 of the said rules in the heading of Part IX after the words "labelling and packing" the words "of drugs other than Homoeopathic medicines" shall be inserted.

New Delhi, the 19th February 1964

S.O. 712.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad, in the matter of application under section 33A of the said Act from Shri Sudam Murmoo, a workman of Indian Copper Corporation Limited, Post Office Ghatsila C/o Mosaboni Mines Labour Union, Post Office Mosaboni Mines, District Singhbhum, which was received by the Central Government on the 14th February, 1964.

BEFORE THE CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, DHANBAD

In the matter of a complaint under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947.

COMPLAINT No. 31 of 1963
(arising out of Reference No. 8 of 1962)

PARTIES:

Sudam Murmoo, B. No. 2875/N. Timber Mistry, North Section, C/o Mosaboni Mines Labour Union, P. O. Mosaboni Mines, Dist. Singhbhum—Complainant.

vs.

M/s. Indian Copper Corporation Limited, P.O., Ghatsila—Opposite Party.

PRESENT:

Sri Raj Kishore Prasad, M.A. B.L.—Presiding Officer.

APPEARANCES:

For the Complaint—Sri R. K. Nair, Assistant Secretary, Mosaboni Labour Union.

For the Opposite Party—Sarvashree S. K. Ghosh, Advocate. with K. Ramamoorthi, Labour Officer.

STATE: Bihar.

INDUSTRY: Copper.

Camp: Jamshedpur, dated the 29th January, 1964

AWARD

This complaint was made on 23rd November 1963 under Section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, in Reference No. 8 of 1962 by the workman, Sudam Murmoo, Timber Mistry, against the opposite party complaining against the termination of his service by the management for his absence from 13th June, 1963.

2. This complaint was taken up for hearing at Jamshedpur on 28th January, 1964, when the main reference was fixed for hearing, at the request of the parties, to suit their convenience. The case was taken up on 28th January 1964 but at the request of the parties as they wanted to compromise this case also, it was adjourned to 29th January 1964.

3. On 29th January 1964 Sri R. K. Nair appeared for the complainant and Sarvashree J. K. Ghosh, Advocate, and K. Ramamoorthi, Labour Officer, appeared for the management opposite party. Both the parties filed a joint petition of compromise, signed by Sri N. A. B. Hill, General Manager, on behalf of the company opposite party and by Sri R. K. Nair, on behalf of the complainant, and they jointly prayed that the complaint may be permitted to withdraw his complaint without adjudication.

4. In these circumstances, the complainant is permitted to withdraw his complaint and the complaint is accordingly disposed of.

5. This is the award which I make and submit to the Government of India under Section 15 of the Act.
